STM PMEIA Dialogue on Ecumenical & Inter Faith Relations

The weekend of April 27 & 28 was devoted to a dialogue with Fr Xavier Andrew after all masses. This was part of an ongoing roadshow by Fr Xavier, Ecclesiastical Assistant of AMEIA, to promote AMEIA & PMEIA in all parishes in the KL Archdiocese. Fr Xavier celebrated all masses in STM that weekend and held dialogue sessions with parishioners after the masses.

Over 60 parishioners responded to the invitation and many were keen to be part of the PMEIA Ministry. The objective to generate awareness for PMEIA was achieved as many expressed minimal knowledge about this Ministry.

Two video clips were shown. One centred on AMEIA and the other encapsulated the growth of PMEIA in STM.

To know more about the PMEIA Ministry contact Angeline Lesslar (0178808805)

STM COMMUNITY ROOM

@ ST. MARY OF THE CROSS ROOM, LEVEL 1

OPEN ALL WEEK
(except during Sunday School)

TABLE TENNIS • FOOSBALL • CARROM

Our parish is striving to be a community of authentic, intentional disciples of Jesus on mission. As the first step in this direction, STM has dedicated a room towards the cause of bringing our parish community together - that we may partake in God's love through the gift of each other.

No booking has to be made, and all who use the room are strongly encouraged to welcome anyone who pops by!

Looking for a regular group to recreate with at the STM community room? Fill in the form at the link below and we'll try to connect you. :)

SCRIPTURE of the DAY

Acts 10: 25-26, 34-35,
44-48

Psalms 97: 1-4

1 John 4: 7-10

John 15: 9-17

Imagine when someone whom you care about, says to you he loves you. Imagine the joy and the myriad of emotions that flow within you at that precious moment. Listen to today's Gospel reading. We have Jesus standing in front of all his disciples who have shared His journey right up to His resurrection and you are among them. And you hear Him say He loves you. He wants you to remain in His love and share His joy. This is the greatest love story of them all.

In the first reading, Peter is witness to the outpouring of grace by the Holy Spirit upon Jews and non-Jews alike. Those present were amazed by the power of that love upon those who have not yet known Him. Then, we have John in his letter, urging us to love one another because God loves us. He sent His only Son into the world so that we may have life. He sent His only Son into the world to die for our sins! For our salvation! What other proof of love of God for us do we need? And yet, we sometimes doubt.

If this exhortation is not convincing enough, let Jesus speak to us Himself. In the Gospel today, He tells us that he wants us to remain in His love. He wants our joy to be complete. He continues to tell us that he loves us and commands us to love one another as He has loved us. How many times do we need to be told? Jesus' love for us is active love. He reminds us that He has laid down His life for us. Such a profession of love for us cannot but demand a response of the same. He does not want passive love. No lip service. He wants us to go out and bear fruit that will last, to bear witness to Him. And more, if we do as He says, God our Father will give us what we ask of Him.

In Joy we await the coming of the Spirit of God's love upon our Church as we go out and witness to the world His love for everyone. ✠
