A Prayer for Lenten Grace

Loving God,

During the sacred season of Lent, bring me closer to you.
Prepare a place in my home and heart for silence and solitude, so that I may re-discover the grace of a prayer-full life.

Enlarge my heart so that I give to those in need and, in so doing, re-discover the grace of gratitude and generosity.

Help me to fast from those things that threaten the well-being of body and soul,
remind me of the grace and simplicity.
May this season be grace-filled time to rekindle my love for and faith in you.

Amen.

— MESSAGE FOR LENT 2026 — “LISTENING AND FASTING”

LENT AS A TIME OF CONVERSION

BY POPE LEO XIV

Dear brothers and sisters,
Lent is a time in which the Church,
guided by a sense of maternal care,
invites us to place the mystery of God
back in the center of our lives, in order to find renewal in our faith and keep our hearts from being consumed by the anxieties and distractions of daily life.

Every path towards conversion begins
by allowing the word of God to touch our hearts and welcoming it with a docile spirit. There is a relationship between the word, our acceptance of it and the transformation it brings about. For this reason, the Lenten journey is a welcome opportunity to heed the voice of the Lord and renew our commitment to following Christ, accompanying him on the road to Jerusalem, where the mystery of his passion, death and resurrection will be fulfilled.

“In the One, We Are One”

When it comes to the subject of temptation, we have many stories to share, don't we? Everybody faces temptation. Some of it is pretty harmless (that extra slice of chocolate cake) and we can laugh about it. But some of it isn't.

SCRIPTURE of the DAY

Genesis 2: 7-9, 3: 1-7
Psalm 50: 3-6, 12-14, 17
Romans 5: 12-19
(or 12: 17-19)
Matthew 4: 1-11

“Despise the temptation and embrace the
tribulation.
When the enemy
roars around you,
it shows that he is not in you.”

St. Padre Pio

But that's the supreme subtlety of the Devil. He has perfected the art of making sin not look like sin. The Devil's first accomplishment is to convince you that he doesn't exist. And then he proceeds to insinuate doubts to make you believe that conscience is a figment, that prayer is a projection, and finally that God is only a defence mechanism.

In contrast to what the Devil throw at us, our Lord Jesus provides us with the perfect defence against his attacks - faith and obedience to the authority of God. Christ in embracing our humanity, allowed Himself to be tempted as we have been tempted (Heb. 4:15). No other gospel story allows us to identify so closely with Him. He proves to us that if we remain steadfast to God's purpose and will, His grace will have the last word, not sin.

But it is also helpful to know how the Devil works. The tempter offers up things that are eminently reasonable and seemingly rational. Sometimes evil is easily identified. But more often than not, evil presents itself in the guise of an apparent good. What is the common thread running through all temptations which we face? It is basically this: to treat God as less than God. And ultimately, when men cease to trust God and worship Him, they end up worshipping themselves or the devil. We are constantly being tested to trust God and instead trust in our own strength.

But Jesus's example shows us to always stay focus on God and not the world. We derive power not from autonomy but from faithful and humble obedience to God. Ultimately, the ultimate defence and cure to all forms of temptations is this, putting God first above all else.

This Lent let's tussle against temptation by trusting in the one who was and is always faithful to us—Jesus Christ, the One who defeated the Devil at his own game. In the One, we are One! ✝
