A Prayer for Lenten Grace

Loving God,

During the sacred season of Lent, bring me closer to you. Prepare a place in my home and heart for silence and solitude, so that I may re-discover the grace of a prayer-full life.

Enlarge my heart so that I give to those in need and, in so doing, re-discover the grace of gratitude and generosity.

Help me to fast from those things that threaten the well-being of body and soul, remind me of the grace and simplicity.

May this season be grace-filled time to rekindle my love for and faith in you.

Amen.

— MESSAGE FOR LENT 2026 —
"LISTENING AND FASTING"
LENT AS A TIME OF CONVERSION
BY POPE LEO XIV

Dear brothers and sisters,
Lent is a time in which the Church, guided by a sense of maternal care, invites us to place the mystery of God back in the center of our lives, in order to find renewal in our faith and keep our hearts from being consumed by the anxieties and distractions of daily life.

Every path towards conversion begins by allowing the word of God to touch our hearts and welcoming it with a docile spirit. There is a relationship between the word, our acceptance of it and the transformation it brings about. For this reason, the Lenten journey is a welcome opportunity to heed the voice of the Lord and renew our commitment to following Christ, accompanying him on the road to Jerusalem, where the mystery of his passion, death and resurrection will be fulfilled.

MEET ME AT THE WELL

This Lent, don't just go through the motions, come and encounter Christ.

LENTEN REFLECTION 2

WALKING TOGETHER TOWARDS A SYNODAL AND PROPHETIC CHURCH

A People for Missionary Discipleship

MONTHLY FOCUS: ECOLOGY: Restoring Our Common Home

Lent when compared to Christmas often takes on a darker, more sombre hue. While that is true, the Church also provides us with sufficient light to traverse through “the valley of darkness” by situating the scene of the Transfiguration at the beginning of Lent. The Lord takes Peter, John and James up to a mountain and there,

SCRIPTURE of the DAY

Genesis 12: 1-4
Psalm 32: 4-5, 18-20, 22
2 Timothy 1: 8-10
Matthew 17: 1-9

His glory shines through. The Greek word that describes this mystery is the verb form of “metamorphosis” - the wondrous unfolding of a butterfly as she emerges from the dark and colourless cocoon.

Most of us would prefer, like the apostles, to remain on the mountain, beholding the glory of our Lord for eternity, without having to descend the hill and be confronted with the horror of suffering, failure and death. But our Lord challenges us to go down the mountain, back into the real world and continue the “ordinary” work of walking with others. Pope Leo XIV tells us, “The Church, like a mother, accompanies those who are walking. Where the world sees threats, she sees children; where walls are built, she builds bridges” (DT 75).

The story of the Transfiguration is a good reminder that though the Lord can bring us up to the mountaintop to have a glimpse of God’s glory and a taste of heaven, and to experience His love tangibly, we can’t stay up there. Life is lived in the low places, in the valleys. God has work for us to do. We should not forget about the mission of the cross that we are to pick up as servants of Christ.

And this, is the mysterious nature of our faith. Faith is always drawing us onwards. Just when we thought we knew the answers, we have to set those answers down and move on empty handed. Ultimately, the transfiguration is not just about reaching the tops of mountains, Christ will also be revealed in glory in the loneliness, forsakenness and agony on a cross. And, He will transfigure that cross too - from a sign of death into a sign of life and hope. During this Lent, let us be united with Him in the cross as He unites with us in glory! In the One, we are One. ✚

✚
Jesus’ beauty does not alienate his disciples from the reality of life but gives them the strength to follow him all the way to Jerusalem, all the way to the cross.

- Pope Francis
